

Hearing other people's Yeshua stories encourages our faith

6But God, who encourages those who are discouraged, encouraged us by the arrival of Titus. 7His presence was a joy, but so was the news he brought of the encouragement he received from you. 2 Corinthians 7:6-7a

Other People's Stories

One of the most enjoyable aspects over the last several months for me has been hearing other people's faith stories. Normally once a month in the Lighthouse we get to hear two new people share their stories. It boosts my faith as I hear the diversity of personal testimonies. The common denominator is Yeshua, and because of Him we are all connected together. It's as if everyone is a unique flower with a different color, shape, and fragrance.

Brought together we are a diverse bouquet that testifies of God's goodness and mercy.

One byproduct of these stories has been that it has boosted my faith for other preBelievers around me now in similar states to be drawn to the Lord. If Yah saved such a wide array of folks in different places of sin and brokenness, I believe He can and will do it again.
