

Is another Jesus Revolution coming our way?

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
for He has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released,
that the blind will see,
that the oppressed will be set free,
19 and that the time of the Lord’s favor has come. Luke 4:18

A Jesus Revolution

I recently went to see the film Jesus Revolution with our family--which I highly recommend. It's easily one of the best Christian movies I've ever seen. The movie retells a portion of the early days of the Jesus movement which initially swelled in southern California in the early 1970's. The story is told through the eyes of a young seeker turned Believer named Greg Laurie who is an influential pastor now in his 60's. Also brought forth were other significant contributors--namely Pastor Chuck Smith of Calvary Chapel as well as a young teenaged evangelist named Lonnie Frisbee.

The best way to describe the overriding emotion in my heart as I watched the movie was an ache. It was an ache for YHWH to once again move upon people's hearts as He had done so significantly in this sovereign timeframe. While watching, my eyes pooled with tears as I whispered, "do it again God."

I believe that God is going to move again in an unprecedented way, and I want to be a part of whatever He's doing. But, as in every move of God's Spirit, while there are some commonalities there also some unique aspects too. I find it interesting to note that where the Gospel is going forth with the greatest fruit in our world today, it is in areas of extreme persecution and difficulty for Believers. I believe that this may well be the case for us in America too.

I'm not much for suffering, but I want such a radical love in my heart for Yeshua that when persecution comes for the sake of the Gospel that I'm willing to be faithful to Him even when it's difficult to do so. So again, I pray "do it again God" but also add "I need You to help me to be a pleasing offering to You in the midst of whatever comes our way."
